NOTES AND COMMENTS.

President Wilson admits that he is not good looking. Fact is he is not very handsome and truth to say he is ugly; but pretty is as pretty does, and he does.

There are said to be 800,000 automobiles in use in this country and we feel at times that we are dodging every one of them.

Scientists have discovered that people are more liable to fall in love when the moon is full. That is to say, when it's moonie we get looney.

It looks like Hon. Claude B. Terrell will be re-elected Speaker without opposition, the other candidates having withdrawn. He made an excellent presiding officer and deserves the honor.

There were produced in this country last year 33,333,000 barrels of salt, but it was not near enough to save the Republican party, which seems down and out everywhere.

A bill has been introduced in Congress to double postal rates, the surplus to go to road building. A bigger fool proposition could hardly be made, but fortunately it won't be taken seriously.

Editor S. M. Sautley was elected to the Legislature from Lincoln by 713 plurality and the rest of the Democratic ticket by from 512 to 841. DeLoe for jailer winning by the latter figure. The Interior Journal celebrated the victory by giving in its issue of the evening of the election a full table of the vote of the county, a feat which shows the enterprise of Editor Sautley, who we predict will make a most useful member.

Congressman W. J. Bryan has sued the Seattle, Wash., Times for $250,000 for calling him "an assassin of character," a "cur" and a "nefarious whelp." The paper does not seem to care worth a cent, as it says with reference to the suit: "Degenerate Bryan plays the coward and appeals to the courts." This appears to be piling it on and if Bryan has any case at court it will aggravate the amount of damages. Libel suits are usually the resort of men who prefer money to character, and Bryan seems to be in that boat.

Gov. Foos, of Massachusetts, who has run for office on every ticket known, said he would land on his feet and it is well he did, as he will need them to walk out of office. His Democratic opponent beat him by 100,000. He ran last in a field of four.

Although Buschmeyer's majority for mayor of Louisville is 4,845 over both the Republican and Progressive nominees, the Progressive are crying fraud and threatening to contest. It is ever thus.

A Chicago statistician, who claims to have kept count, says that in 22 American cities of 100,000 or more 691 people have been killed in a year by automobiles, or two thirds more than by railroads. Given a careless or a drunken chauffeur, an automobile is more terrible than an army with banners.

We buy all kinds of country produce, pay the highest market price. Give us a call. Covington Thorpe Co. 57-1f.

MILLER & WHITE

Buy Interest of E. C. Walton In Climax.

Mr. A. D. Miller and Dr. W. G. White, the other owners of the Richmond Climax, have bought the interest of Mr. E. C. Walton and are now again the sole owners of the paper. Mr. Walton spent Wednesday here and was given a real ovation by the friends he made during his year's sojourn in the city. He is greatly pleased with his prospects in Orlando, Fla. His daily paper published there is a gold mine.

Opening Embroidery Display.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Nov. 13, 14, 15, will be opening days at my embroidery store in the Hobson building. Have a large variety of holiday novelties. Mrs. Laura Blanton 12-2

Pickles Can Have Our Set.

At Richmond, a cotillion club decided to permit its members to dance any old style they preferred. So Editors Tom Pickles and W. P. Walton may turkey trot, do the tango or cut the pigeon wing to their hearts' content.—Danville Messenger.

Five Murder Cases.

Owing to the election circuit court did not begin at Nicholasville till Wednesday. The docket is the fullest for many years, there being 30 criminal cases, five for murder. One, a woman, Mrs. Gibson, will go on trial for killing Mrs. Smith, at High Bridge. The case has aroused a great deal of interest and promises to be quite sensational.

Fine Preacher And Fine Man.

Rev. W. E. Ellis, who is to hold a protracted meeting at the Christian church here following his dedication, is one of the best preachers in the denomination. He is at present pastor of the Paris church, where he held in the highest esteem. The editor has known him for years as one of God's noblest creations.

Berea Corn Show.

Berea is to have a corn show and public school fair tomorrow, 8th, at the College tabernacle, as a culmination of Mr. Frank Montgomery's year's work as farm demonstrator. It will be the joint exhibit of the public schools of that end of the county. Prizes to the amount of $300 will be given. An excellent program of speaking and music will be rendered in the afternoon by good speakers from the State University, Eastern Normal and Berea. Prof. Kinney, of the State Experiment Station, will judge the corn and wheat. Expert judges from Eastern and Berea will judge the other exhibits.

A Butterfly On The Wheel.

After its long engagement in New York, "A Butterfly On The Wheel," the play which is based on the divorce question, will be presented at the Opera House soon, with Eleanor Montell in the leading role of Peggy. "A Butterfly" came originally from London, where it played the entire season to crowded houses. The reception of the play in New York was one of the surprises of the season and immediately "A Butterfly On The Wheel" caught on, remaining six months on Broadway. The play is noted for its realistic court room scene which shows the examination of the "Butterfly," a frail little woman of great beauty, who has been sued for divorce. The encounter between the wife and the prosecuting counsel is one of the finest pieces of acting seen in many seasons, and Miss Montell brings to the character of the wife a conception that is a masterpiece of realism.

The Local Election.

This election could hardly have resulted more satisfactorily than it did in Madison. The entire Democratic county ticket, as will be seen by reference to the table of the vote by precincts in this issue of the Climax, went in by large majorities and for four years more the party of the people will continue to conduct the affairs of government economically and faithfully. For the offices in which there were contests, the Republicans made a poor showing, while the Progressives proved that the party of Roosevelt has about petered out.

We congratulate the winners and the party responsible for them and are sure that they will live up to what is expected of them.

There were those who professed to believe that Mayor Samuel Rice was in danger, but the result proved that the voters of the city had confidence in him and were determined to retain him in office. All the councilmen elected are Democrats, which continues the city in the Democratic column, where she rightfully belongs.

On the whole, Tuesday was a mighty good day for Democrats, while the weather conditions could not have been improved upon.

For Sale.

Pure bred Buff Orpingtons—hens, pullets and roosters. Have also a Cabinet Grand Harvard Piano. Mrs. R. P. McCord, Red House, Ky. 12-1f.

A New Use For Salt.

"I have seen salt put to many uses," says a writer, "but the other day to an entirely novel one. A man, obviously 'under the weather,' entered a shop and called for a package of table salt. On being supplied, he swallowed a couple of mouthfuls and then took a quantity after the fashion of snuff. Then he departed. 'He often does that,' said the shopkeeper: it is a grand thing to sober him!"—Cardiff Western Mail.

A Valuable Table.

To weigh without scales:
Ten eggs—one pound.
Soft butter size of egg—one ounce.
One pint of sugar—12 ounces.
One pint of brown sugar—13 ounces.
Two teacupfuls (level) granulated sugar—one pound.
Two teacupfuls (well heaped) of A sugar—one pound.
Two teacupfuls of soft butter—one pound.
One pint of liquid—one pound.
—National Magazine.

Bad Men Break Jail.

All the prisoners in the county jail at Beattyville except one got away by cutting a hole through the steel cage and through the brick wall of the jail next to the railroad. They are John Caudell, under life sentence for murder, and whose case had just been affirmed by the Court of Appeals.

Jesse James, a negro, who was arrested in Winchester and taken to Beattyville for trial for killing another negro at Embury's Camp, on the Middle Fork.

Bradley Stamper, a white man, charged with robbery, was stopped by the sheriff as he was trying to get through the hole in the brick wall. He claims to know nothing about the escape of the others.

A MESSAGE TO WOMEN

Who Are "Just Ready to Drop."

When you are "just ready to drop," when you feel so weak that you can hardly drag yourself about—and because you have not slept well, you get up as tired-out next morning as when you went to bed, you need help. Miss Lea Dumas writes from Malone, N. Y., saying: "I was in a badly run-down condition for several weeks but two bottles of Vinol put me on my feet again and made me strong and well. Vinol has done me more good than all the other medicines I ever took."

If the careworn, run-down women, the pale, sickly children and feeble old folks around here would follow Miss Dumas' example, they, too, would soon be able to say that Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron remedy, had built them up and made them strong.

It is a wonderful, strength creator and body-builder, and we sell it under a guarantee of satisfaction. You get your money back if Vinol does not help you.

P. S. For any skin trouble try our Saxo Salve. We guarantee it.

A BRONCHIAL COUGH

is wearing and dangerous because the inflamed, mucus-filled tubes interfere with breathing and the fresh air passes through that unhealthy tissue.

Probably no other remedy affords such prompt and permanent relief as Scott's Emulsion; it checks the cough, heals the linings of the throat and bronchial tubes and strengthens the lungs to avert tuberculosis. This point cannot be emphasized too strongly—that Scott's Emulsion has been suppressing bronchitis for forty years and will help you.

NOVEMBER 7, 1913

TUESDAY was a royal day for Democracy. In Kentucky there was an almost unbroken line of Democratic victories, while in New Jersey, Maryland, Virginia and Massachusetts it was all one way. Democratic Governors and full tickets being elected in three of them and a U. S. Senator in Maryland by a plurality of 42,000. In Indianapolis a Democratic mayor was elected by a plurality of 5,547. In Cincinnati, the more the pity, a Republican was elected mayor by a small plurality. In New York City, the fusion candidate for mayor put up against Tammany and favored by President Wilson won by 121,000 plurality which wrecks the malign power of Tammany. Let us hope, however, that the Democrats to the Legislature, but the Democrats lost control of it, owing to dissensions. In New Jersey Fiedler was elected Governor by a plurality of 33,000, greatly to the satisfaction of President Wilson, who justly feels that the elections have shown how fully his administration is approved. At no point, except in Louisville, did the Progressives show any strength indicating that that so-called party is almost entirely eliminated, except as a thorn in the flesh of the Republicans.

It really looks like the Democrats have come to their own to stay and they will, if the leaders steer as clear of mistakes as they have done.

The happiest lot of Democrats in the State are in Lexington. A lot of sore-headed Democrats and Republicans combined four years ago and by false representation and false pretense, won most of the county offices. They failed to make good. In fact they made very bad. Attempting the same trick again this year, they got the cold shoulder and with Judge Frank Bullock heading the Democratic ticket, as he did four years ago, the Democrats had easy sailing. The Judge was elected by 1,118 majority, the average of the list being 1,000, while Theodore Lewis was re-elected county clerk by about 2,000. The hardest fight was made on Mrs.

Nannie G. Faulconer for county superintendent because she had increased taxes for school purposes, but she won by 36 majority over Miss Fidler, the fusion nominee. The entire county administration will be Democratic and all the magistrates but one. It will be a gratifying change which will redound to the good of the people.

To Chairman Thomas A. Combs, of the campaign committee, and to such telling speakers as Former Congressman W. P. Kimball, in addition to the splendid personnel of the ticket, the great victory is due and the result indicates that no more will the county and city go off after false Gods.

Mrs. Ella H. Ellwanger, of Louisville and Frankfort, has written a book, which like all her efforts is delightfully entertaining and refreshing. The subject is not a very new one, that of a boy, but handled in her incomparable style it is better than new. Editor Henry Watterson pronounces it one of the best little stories he ever read and Mrs. Ellwanger is very proud that he wrote the inscription just before he left for Europe. The book is splendidly gotten up and printed and will be on sale in a few days, when it is sure to have a good run. The writer feels great interest in the success of the work, owing to the pleasant relations that existed during his ownership of the Frankfort State Journal. Mrs. Ellwanger was society editor and the best that we ever knew. She did not confine her work to that alone, but did general writing of a most entertaining and enjoyable nature. She is a real genius and one of the most deserving of women.

The President and Mrs. Wilson sent out 400 invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Jessie, but up to the hour of going to press ours had persistently refused to arrive. The mail service is becoming exasperatingly bum. Turn the rascals out!

A woman was sentenced to death at Concord, Conn., for killing her husband, but she will not suffer death. The hanging of women has become a lost art in this country. The last woman hanged in Connecticut was in 1786.

The Court of Appeals decides that a son cannot be made to support his father, but if there is a son who can and won't support his father after he has been incapacitated, hush! won't be hot enough for him in the life to come.

To prove how the Progressive vote is slipping away, a negro beat a follower of Roosevelt at Winchester for councilman. Sic transit gloria mundi, as we Irish say.

ALL his friends, and their name is Legion, are delighted that Judge Frank A. Bullock "came back" in Fayette. He would never have been defeated but for the circulation of the meanest lies on him, which enough people were led to believe to let a Republican in. The election will give Judge Bullock 24 years as county judge of next to the richest county in the State.

THAT the woman suffrage movement is the product of noisy and dissatisfied women with little interest taken in it by women in general, God bless them, is shown in the fact that in this county, with a population of about 30,000, only twelve women voted. The average woman does not want to usurp her husband's and brothers' prerogatives.

Gov. SULZER seems disposed to rub it in Tammany. Not content with triumphing over it and being elected to the General Assembly, he will run for Speaker of the House. If all the charges against Murphy that have been made are sustained, he will go to the pen.

JUDGE BENTON seems determined to purify elections. He did it here and is now doing it in Jessamine, where he delivered the set charge to the Grand jury made at Winchester and here.

The City Council

Buys Auto.

Mr. Samuel Q. Royce bought of the Richmond Auto Company yesterday a fine five-passenger Buick car.

Jake Tussey was tried before Judge Shackelford this morning for violating the local option law and acquitted.

Taken to Frankfort.

Deputy Sheriff G. W. T. Deatherage and W. A. Johnson took the prisoners to Frankfort yesterday convicted at the last term of circuit court.

Fine Weather.

One of the pleasantest spells of weather that ever came in November ended this morning in a shower, but the signal service says it will be fair again to night and Saturday and a little colder.

There were no developments of any kind in the Mexican situation the White House announced last night. It was admitted that instructions had been sent Charge O'Shaughnessy and although their nature was not made public the manner in which officials discussed the situation indicated that news dispatches from Mexico City were correct. He is pastor of the Fairfax street Church of Christ in Winchester, and conducts services on one Lord's Day in each month."

The Carlin bill, recently passed by Congress making the robbery of freight cars, baggage cars and express cars engaged in interstate commerce and the robbery of interstate shipments from platforms and stations a federal offense, is a law with teeth in it and sharp ones at that as was evidenced in the Federal court in Alabama when John L. Parker was given a sentence of six years in the United States prison for robbing a shipment of shoes consigned to Glazen, Miss. from a car in the Birmingham yards on May 1.

PRICE $1.00 A YEAR IN ADVANCE

NOVEMBER 7, 1913

TUESDAY was a royal day for Democracy in Kentucky. There was an almost unbroken line of Democratic victories, while in New Jersey, Maryland, Virginia and Massachusetts it was all one way. Democratic Governors and full tickets being elected in three of them and a U. S. Senator in Maryland by a plurality of 42,000. In Indianapolis a Democratic mayor was elected by a plurality of 5,547. In Cincinnati, the more the pity, a Republican was elected mayor by a small plurality. In New York City, the fusion candidate for mayor put up against Tammany and favored by President Wilson won by 121,000 plurality which wrecks the malign power of Tammany, let us hope, forever. Sulzer was elected to the legislature, but the Democrats lost control of it, owing to dissensions. In New Jersey Fidler was elected Governor by a plurality of 33,000, greatly to the satisfaction of President Wilson, who justly feels that the elections have shown how fully his administration is approved. At no point, except in Louisville, did the Progressives show any strength indicating that that so-called party is almost entirely eliminated, except as a thorn in the flesh of the Republicans.

It really looks like the Democrats have come to their own to stay and they will, if the leaders steer as clear of mistakes as they have done.

The happiest lot of Democrats in the State are in Lexington. A lot of sore-head Democrats and Republicans combined four years ago and by false representation and false pretenses, won most of the county offices. They failed to make good. In fact they made very bad. Attempting the same trick again this year, they got the cold shoulder and with Judge Frank Bullock heading the Democratic ticket, he did four years ago, the Democrats had easy sailing. The Judge was elected by 1,118 majority, the average of the list being 1,000, while Theodore Lewis was re-elected county clerk by about 2,000. The hardest fight was made on Mrs.

Nannie G. Faulconer for county superintendent because she had increased taxes for school purposes, but she won by 36 majority over Miss Fidler, the fusion nominee. The entire county administration will be Democratic and all the magistrates but one. It will be a gratifying change which will redound to the good of the people.

To Chairman Thomas A. Combs, of the campaign committee, and to such telling speakers as former Congressman W. P. Kimball, in addition to the splendid personnel of the ticket, the great victory is due and the result indicates that no more will the county and city go off after false Gods.

Mrs. ELLA H. ELLWANGER, of Louisville and Frankfort, has written a book, which like all her efforts is delightfully entertaining and refreshing. The subject is not a very new one, that of a bad boy, but handled in her incomparable style it is better than new. Editor Henry Watterson pronounces it one of the best little stories he ever read and Mrs. Ellwanger is very proud that he wrote the inscription just before he left for Europe. The book is splendidly gotten up and printed and will be on sale in a few days, when it is sure to have a good run. The writer feels great interest in the success of the work, owing to the pleasant relations that existed during his ownership of the Frankfort State Journal. Mrs. Ellwanger was society editor and the best that we ever knew. She did not confine her work to that alone, but did general writing of a most entertaining and enjoyable nature. She is a real genius and one of the most deserving of women.

The President and Mrs. Wilson sent out 400 invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Jessie, but up to the hour of going to press our had persistently refused to arrive. The mail service is becoming exasperatingly bum. Turn the rascals out!

A WOMAN was sentenced to death at Concord, Conn., for killing her husband, but she will not suffer death. The hanging of women has become a lost art in this country. The last woman hanged in Connecticut was in 1786.

The Court of Appeals decides that a son cannot be made to support his father, but if there is a son who can and won't support his father after he has been incapacitated, hades won't be hot enough for him in the life to come.

To prove how the Progressive vote is slipping away, a negro beat a follower of Roosevelt at Winchester for councilman. Si transit gloria mundi, as we Irish say.

Eleanor Montell as "Peggy" in a "Butterfly on the Wheel" at the Opera House Tuesday, Nov. 18

ALL his friends, and their name is Legion, are delighted that Judge Frank A. Bullock "came back" in Fayette. He would never have been defeated but for the circulation of the meanest lies on him, which enough people were led to believe to let a Republican in. The election will give Judge Bullock 24 years as county judge of next to the richest county in the State.

THAT the woman suffrage movement is the product of noisy and dissatisfied women with little interest taken in it by women in general, God bless them, is shown in the fact that in this county, with a population of about 30,000, only twelve women vote. The average woman does not want to usurp her husband's and brothers' prerogatives.

Gov. SULZER seems disposed to rub it in Tammany. Not content with triumphing over it and being elected to the General Assembly, he will run for Speaker of the House. If all the charges against Murphy that have been made are sustained, he will go to the pen.

Judge HIXSON seems determined to purify elections. He did it here and is now doing it in Jessamine, where he delivered the set charge to the Grand jury made at Winchester and here.

The Carlin bill, recently passed by Congress making the robbery of freight cars, baggage cars and express cars engaged in interstate commerce and the robbery of interstate shipments from platforms and stations a federal offense, is a law with teeth in it and sharp ones at that as was evidenced in the Federal court in Alabama when John L. ## THE ELECTION.

Vote of Madison County.

As there were so few contested elections, there appears little reason for printing a table of the vote which we give by candidates in the races with contests.

For Representative—John F. White, Democrat, received 2,512 votes, and G. D. Holliday, Republican, 2,308. White's majority 504.

For County Clerk—R. B. Terrill, Democrat, 2,852; G. B. Moore, Republican, 2,346. Terrill's majority 506.

For Sheriff—Van B. Benson, Democrat, 2,904; A. C. Benge, Republican, 2,049. E. S. Baker, Progressive, about 100. Benson's plurality 755.

Mr. Whitlock received the largest vote, but Mr. Benson got the largest majority over the Republicans. The candidates in the uncontested races got about the same vote as those who had opposition.

Both of the amendments to the Constitution for a change in the tax laws and to work the convicts on the roads seem to have carried.

The election commissioners, Sheriff D. A. McCord and Messrs. T. S. Burman and D. B. Shuckelford, spent the most of today canvassing the vote of Tuesday. It was a big job, requiring much tabulating and figuring.

Judge Hugh Riddell, appointed by Governor McCreary to fill the vacancy made by the death of Judge D. B. Redwine in the Breathitt district, was elected by 126 majority. He carried Wolf by 200, Breathitt by 87. Adams carried Eschall by 136 and Lee by 85.

The entire Democratic tickets were elected in Boyle, Montgomery, Clark, Jessamine, Bourbon and Fayette. Laurel elected an entire Republican ticket, save county superintendent, who was the Democratic nominee.

The Democrats have an overwhelming majority in the Legislature. The Progressives won't have a representative in either branch.

City Election.

There was no contest in the Richmond city election save in the race for Mayor, the incumbent Mayor Samuel Rice winning over Mr. K. Stone who ran on the Citizens League ticket by 237 majority. Rice's vote was 568, Stone's 331. Messrs. Ed. Blanton, John Allman, and John Nolan were elected as members of the Board of Education Tuesday and C. A. Taylor was defeated.

At Berea.

For councilmen, Citizens' ticket, J. K. Baker, 126; John W. Fowler, 131; L. A. Davis, 165; J. B. Richardson, 105; C. Preston, 135; C. F. Rumold, 137; Progressive, R. R. Chrisman, 52; John Muncy, 69; W. H. Stowe, 65; J. L. Pitts, 56; W. B. Harris, 41; Independent, I. C. Baxter, 45; N. J. Coyle, 85.

For mayor, Republican, J. L. Gay, 102; Progressive, J. W. Stephens, 52. For Police Judge, Republican, Andrew Isaacs, 192; Progressive, J. J. Brannaman, 42.

Alhambra To-Night.

One of the most effective things for the young people was the Gypsy, made of fodder and presided over by a fortune teller. After several hours spent in merriment, delicious refreshments of ices and cakes were served. The guests departed at mid-night, all feeling much indebted to the host for such a pleasant evening."

As To Caleb Powers.

Ed. O'Leigh, who was at Frankfort during the reign of terror, writes in the Bowling Green Messenger:

"May be it would be just as well to close the tragic chapter of Kentucky's history, but we will take this parting shot, anyway, inasmuch as one of Powers' fellow-students felt called upon to write him a letter of condolence containing the following sentence over the Conrad incident: 'We, who have come in contact with you and know you personally, feel that your constituency did little in the way of reparation for the wrong done you when you went to Congress.'"

"Those of us who were on the scene know of the activity of Caleb Powers in bringing the mountain army to Frankfort. We know that the shot that killed Goebel was fired from a window of his private office and that the public door was locked and bolted and could only be entered by battering down the door. The private entrance was presumably accessible only by a key in the possession of Powers himself. We all know of Powers' flight from Frankfort in the garb of a soldier when he could not have had knowledge that a warrant had been sworn out for his arrest. We all know of the various trials, and of his final release at the hands of the partisan Augustus E. Wilson.

"Knowing all these things we are not inclined to think that Professor Conrad was called upon to make any apology."

Who Wants to Be A Drunkard?

Every "Down and Out" in the world was once a moderate drinker. The poorest old, tottering, slobbering inebriate never imagined that drink would finally "get" him. But that's the way with alcohol.

There's just one safe thing to do when appetite is demanding more drink. Stop! The way to get rid of the craving desire which is responsible for the drink habit, is to take the Neal Treatment. It is the poison of alcohol found in the system of every drinker which causes craving for more drink. To get rid of the craving, you must get rid of the poison. This is what the Neal Treatment does. It neutralizes and eliminates all alcoholic poison and in three days changes desire for liquor into intense dislike for everything alcoholic. The Neal Treatment is a harmless vegetable remedy, taken internally and with no dangerous hypodermic injections. There is no publicity. Address the Neal Institute, 601 Maple Avenue, Avondale, Cincinnati, Ohio, telephone Avon 4020. Other Ohio Neal Institutes at Columbus and Cleveland—the old home-stand of John D. Rockefeller.

HOUSEKEEPERS Must be Watchful

For great efforts are being made in this vicinity to sell baking powders of inferior class, made from alum acids and lime phosphates, both undesirable to those who require high-grade cream of tartar baking powder to make clean and healthful food.

The official Government tests have shown Royal Baking Powder to be a pure, healthful, grape cream of tartar baking powder, of highest strength, and care should be taken to prevent the substitution of any other brand in its place.

Royal Baking Powder costs only a fair price per pound, and is cheaper and better at its price than any other baking powder in the world.

HIS VOLUNTEER GUARDIAN

By E. G. HOGSHEAD.

"There," said Mrs. Kenyon, as she hung up the receiver, "I hope she'll feel ashamed of herself now. That's the third time this afternoon that she has called up to ask for Irving—she wants him to call for her this evening. She's the boldest young woman I ever met."

And her kindly blue eyes flashed and her cheeks reddened. "I don't believe I'll tell him," she declared. "If I do he'll surely go, and I hate to see him imposed on in that fashion."

"But you must tell him, mother," said her daughter. "She'll surely tell him if you don't and he's only our guest, you know. You can't take the liberties with him that you would with Bob. Anyway, he seems quite fond of her!"

"Fond of her?" exclaimed Mrs. Kenyon. "She has deliberately insulted him. I wish Bob would speak to Irving. As his room-mate at college he ought to have some sense."

"If Irving's mother knew of the attention and money he is lavishing on that girl she'd be horrified. I feel responsible for him while he's in my house. I'd want her to do as much for Bob."

"There's really nothing to do but to let things slide till the boys go back to college next week," declared her daughter.

But the path of least resistance was never the path of duty for Mrs. Kenyon. The difficulty of the situation appealed to her powers of expediency. Dinner that evening was purposely, though apparently by accident, delayed a half hour. From soup to ice she deftly and tactfully discussed the charming girls of their circle with sly innuendos about the unwomanliness of calling up men at all times and imposing upon their leisure.

After dinner two of Bob's friends dropped in for a game of billiards. Mrs. Kenyon welcomed them cordially. She waited till they were all deeply interested in the game. Then she said suddenly:

"There, I nearly forgot. Miss Edridge called you up several times this afternoon, Irving. She wants you to call for her this evening. The directions are on the phone tablet. I wish I had told you before. I'm so sorry."

Irving, with exasperating cheerfulness, excused himself and hastened away. Mrs. Kenyon met her daughter's teasing smile with a swift glance of indignation.

During the next few days rumors of a theater party and a taxi for dance increased her chagrin and determination. At the end of the week her opportunity came.

"Mrs. Kenyon," said Irving, with a good deal of embarrassment, "I want a gift for a very dear friend of mine, something worth while—like a silk umbrella—for a lady—a stylish one. I hate to put you to any trouble, but you see I don't know much about these things and I thought perhaps you'd help me out."

"But, my dear boy," objected Mrs. Kenyon, "you don't want anything so expensive as that. Flowers, books or music would be just as—"

"But I think a lot of her," he interrupted, "and I want something worth while. Here's $10. I don't know what those things are worth. If it isn't enough just let me know and I'll give you more." Then he hurried out of the room.

Mrs. Kenyon frowned. "The ideal," she said, "Well, that young woman will be disappointed this time. I'll make it my business to see that there'll be no extra expense here."

With purpose of vindictive economy she confined her shopping to the basement sections of the department stores. And it seemed that never before had bargains been so numerous and so alluring.

"This is an unusual bargain," said one salesman. "It's a $10 value reduced to $7.50. It's the very latest style and the only one left."

Mrs. Kenyon fortified herself against the temptation with the vision of Bob in Irving's place and purchased instead a regular $3 silk and cotton umbrella. She met Irving's inquiries with an easy confidence.

"Why, Mrs. Kenyon," he said, "Are you sure that's good enough? It seems so cheap. Would you have bought just that kind if it had been for yourself?"

"Why, yes, indeed," replied Mrs. Kenyon, promptly, "receiving the tantalizing recollection of the $12 value for $7.50. 'No one could wish for a nicer one.'"

"Well, I'm glad of that," he said, "You've been so awfully good to me while I've been here that I wanted to—well, I've for you!"

Equalizing Things.

Two Irishmen arranged to fight a duel with pistols. One of them was distinctly stout and when he saw his lean adversary facing him he raised an objection.

"Bedad," he said, "I'm twice as big a target as he is, so I ought to stand twice as far away from him as he is from me."

Taking a piece of chalk from his pocket he drew two lines down the stout man's coat, leaving a space between.

"Now," he said, turning to the other man, "fire away, ye spalpeen, and remember that any hits outside that chalk line don't count."

It was Aristotle who first wrote: "One swallow maketh not a spring, nor a woodcock a winter," and we might add that one tourist maketh not an autumn, but when we go to church or to the movies, and note "among a sea of upturned faces," a liberal proportion that are new and strange, we are forced to the conclusion that in the north the chilling winds are blowing, the sear and yellow leaf is at hand and the annual exodus to this national playground has begun. And we say, "Welcome, thrice welcome," to Mr. and Mrs. Tourist and do not appoint you. It is not the only place on map, but it is one of the largest and most attractive resorts in Florida, and the longer you stay and the better acquainted you become, the better you will like it.—Orlando, Fla., Reporter-Star.

Steel Frame Low Spread Manure Spreader

Have you ever seen any spreader with more or as many good features? Waist high box—easy to load; makes the shortest turns and spreads evenly at corners; spreads when turning either way; positive force feed—no rolling forward of the load when the manure is moved toward the beater; even spreading until the last forkful is spread; made in seven sizes; wide and narrow boxes; special attachments for drilling and spreading lime.

Ask us also about our new wide spread attachment which scatters manure over an area eight feet wide—a very handy and convenient device for top dressing growing corn.

The next time you are in town stop and get a catalogue. Ask us to show you this machine—to show you how it will save work and increase profits. Give us a chance to prove that the Low Spread tops them all.

Got Missing Figures

THE General Manager was presenting plans for an extension of the factory to the company's directors at Detroit. He found that he had left an estimate sheet in his desk at the factory. He called up the factory on the Bell Long Distance Telephone. His assistant read the figures to him and the directors were able to act without delay.
